H. B. SWEETZER PROBE DEATH OF

RETURNS HOME LYNN GIRL TODAY

Sweetzer left the bank on the afternoon of September 30, complaining of feeling dizzy and sick. He was taken to the Lynn police station by Police Burckes of the Lynn police today to investigate the alleged suspicious circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Mabel C. Nish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Nish of No. 81 Summer street, Lynn.

All information secured by the two investigators will be turned over to Medical Examiner Pinkham and arrests will be made.

stick. From that time until his return he completely dropped out of sight.

His disappearance and his parents' belief that his body would be discovered in the Middlesex Fells and the finding of a hat seemed to strengthen that belief. For nearly a week every part of the Fells was searched, and the various ponds were dragged, without success.

When he disappeared, Sweitzer left a message if they are found warranted. This action is taken by the police upon their own initiative and not at the request of the dead girl's family or Dr. Plushman.

ON WATCH FOR THE TEARLICK

Director Henry Russell of the Boston Opera House is on the anxious seat today, waiting for news from New York of the landing of Maurice Maeterlinck, who is on board the liner Thyng. The heart of the matter is, of course, whether Maeterlinck will stop at the dock despite the warning of a war between him and Mr. Russell.

The pick of New York newspaper commentators is at the White Star pier waiting for the docking of the liner, in order that they may try for a plate of the author Maeterlinck has a wager of 2,000 francs, about $400, with Director Russell, that he will enter the country without a stop.

At a dinner in Switzerland some months ago, at which Mr. Russell and the Belgian author were among the guests, a discussion arose as to the American newspaper men and photographers. Mr. Russell declared that he felt sure he could elude them at the steamer. A wager was made on the spot, and when Mr. Maeterlinck declared that he was coming to this country to be present at the writer's premiere at the Boston Opera House, Mr. Russell refused to wager that he could not enter the country without being recognized.

The wager has stirred every waterfront reporter in New York, and the picked ones of the city will be on hand. It will not be sufficient for Mr. Maeterlinck to cover his face with his hands when he runs the gauntlet of the cameras. He will not be able to do so without being recognized. Mr. Russell is confident that he will win the wager.

PERSIANS KILL
BRITISH AGENT

TEHRAN, via St. Petersburg, Dec. 27.—British Consul Agent Stuart, stationed at Hissin, Persia, is reported to have been killed in a fight between his escort of British cavalry and Persian constitutionalists near Kazerun.

Word was received here today that the military escort accompanying Mr. Stuart from Hissin to Shiraz, 115 miles distant, was attacked and that many were killed on both sides.

Subsequently a relief party found Mr. Stuart's horse, which had been severely wounded, but the English official was not traced.

The Stuart party was harassed all the way from Hissin to Shiraz. The fiercest fighting was near Kazerun, when a party of about 500 Persians ambushed the party. It is almost certain that Stuart was killed by the Persian soldiers of the southern province in order to protect the trade route from the border of brigands which infest the region.

The Persian government will disavow responsibility for the assassination of Mr. Stuart, if it is found that he was killed by the Persian soldiers of the southern province. The British government, however, does not recognize the authority of the Persian government. One of the British consuls, the high tension which already prevailed there, the American treasurer-general, whose expedition was denatured by Persians, backed up with the moral support of Great Britain.

All hope of an amicable settlement between Persia and Russia has been ended. It is feared, by the Russian attention in Persia and other cities, which has aroused Persian attitude is becoming increasingly hostile to the Russian presence. The attitude of the government is unimpaired by the intense feeling of the population. Persia is reported as temporarily quiet.

THE TRUTH ABOUT

POTASH AND PERLMUTTER.

Much curiosity has been expressed as to the identity of Abe Potash and Maurine Perlmutter, the two most amusing and popular characters in fiction, which appear regularly in the Sunday AMERICAN. Are they real persons? Are they actually taken from life? Who are they? See Mr. Montague Glass's own story of the originals of Abe and Maurine in SUNDAY'S AMERICAN.

NEWPORT CLUB WILL CONTINUE

NEWPORT, Dec. 27.—The famous Newport Club, in which a card social developed recently, and the breaking up of the organization was denounced from many quarters, will not disband. Certain members of the club have been expelled, others have resigned, a new board of governors has been elected and, by a unanimous vote of the members at a meeting, it was learned today, the club voted to continue.

The club, it was said, would retain its present quarters. A reorganization will be made, it was declared, that will eliminate the features that brought the club such unfavorable publicity recently, when it was charged that many of the members had been forced out of thousands of dollars through marked cards or a "cold deck."

The men who were reported to have lost large sums during the past two years were in some instances it was stated that their losses would result in their being expelled. William H. Clarke, former Mayor and a member of the club, said that he was not one of the losers, and that he was about the gambling in the club.

Up gambling was carried on against the interests of the members. It was reported that the club was organized for the purpose of raising money for the benefit of the poor.

CHINA REBELS'
BIG VICTORY

SHANGHAI, Dec. 27.—Exciting demonstrations of joy were made here today, following the receipt of news from Peking that Premier Yuan Shikai, after a conference with a number of the imperial princes, had accepted the proposition that a national convention be called in order to allow the people to give voice to their sentiments as to what kind of government shall rule the empire in the future.

Yang Shih-shan, the imperial prince on whom the revolutionaries are making plans to launch a campaign of education to overthrow the present government, is reported to have been expelled from the club.

ROME, Dec. 27.—Count Boni de Castellane has not given up hope of securing the annulment of his marriage to Anna Gould, in spite of the refusal of the Pope to grant him a dispensation. Carl Morris and Kennedy In Big White "Hope" Bout

By JACK ONWAY.

Carl Morris and Tom Kennedy, two truly white "choppers," are billed to awap punches in a ten-round bout at the Empire A. C., New York, tonight. The bout has been advertised as a "fight of the century." It is sure to be witnessed by a large crowd. Both men are reported as being in the best of condition for the fray. The winner of the fight will receive a prize of $10,000.

A real terrible beating in Madison Square Garden, but he was unable to knock him out.

It will be remembered that Jeffries was hitting more than a chopping block for scientific boxing when he first broke into the fight game. But after he had obtained a little experience he became the "corner boy."

Baltimore, March 6, 1908.

Neither of the men have had a great deal of experience in the ring. Kennedy is the former amateur heavyweight champion and has only fought a few battles as a professional. His most notable engagements were with Al Palmer, Tom O'Rourke and Al Kaufman. Kennedy, who is 6' 0. in the sixth round, while Kennedy was awarded the popular decision in his

Morris has been made a favorite in betting circles, like great bull and stamper. He is expected to wear Keenly down. Morris says that he will win the fight by knocking Morris around drowsily. When he does this, he believes he will convince the followers of the roped arena that he is dead while "boppe" and not a false alarm.

Morris Roasted Unmercifully.

Morris has come in for a great deal of criticism since he was defeated by Flynn. He has been called a "chump" and a "lout" and is out to get revenge.

JEANNETTE DEFEATS JACK WILSON

BUFFALO, Oct. 27.—Joe Jeannette put Jack (Twins) Sullivan all the way, and including the first round, he was the winner. Jeannette has over experienced in a ten-pound bout in Convention Hall here. For the first time in his career he was the winner. Jeannette continued with outstanding Jack with long, left-hand jab. When the crowd had

At Madison Square Garden that memorable night, Morris was referred to as a "bum" fighter and as a mere punching bag.

It must be taken into consideration, however, that when the Oklahoma gladiator first stepped into the ring, he was a novice. He was a crude line and very inexperienced fighter. He was not able to stand up to the blows of the more experienced fighters and was forced to take a beating. He was unable to defend himself and was forced to take a beating. He was unable to defend himself and was forced to take a beating.

was always ready to take notice from men outside his office. His great strength has been a big asset to him. He has yet to be knocked out. Flynn gave credit from giving him while Jack was under the roof, circumstances. He never, according to the old-time board, would have no chance against Johnson.
